

Book Report Packet

DECEMBER IS

GOOD NEIGHBOR MONTH!

The activities in this learning package will help you think about some of the people, places and things in your neighborhood. It is due at the end of December. I hope you enjoy working on it!

When I Grow Up

Many books have been written about different jobs. Go to the library. Find a book about a job that you would like to have when you get older. Read it and answer these questions.

When I grow up, I want to be a _____.

The title of my book is _____.

The author is _____.

The illustrator is _____.

Three things this book tells about my career are:

1. _____.

2. _____.

3. _____.

I would like this job because _____.

_____.

In order to have this job, I must _____.

_____.

_____.

Some other people who have this job are:

_____.

_____.

_____.

Architecture

There are many different types of buildings in every neighborhood. Think about your neighborhood. List as many different buildings as you can think of. Then categorize them.

More Goods

There are free goods, those that are provided by nature and you do not pay for, and there are economic goods, those that you must pay for.

List three free goods.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Why are they free? _____

List three economic goods.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Where must we go to get many economic goods?

Can you think of any goods that can be either free or economic?
Write them here.

Be A Good Neighbor

The word neighbor can mean a person who lives right next door to you, on your block, or in your community. Neighbors should try to live together in peace, cooperation and friendship.

1. Write about five ways that you think neighbors can help each other.

2. Draw a picture of a time when someone has been a good neighbor to you. Tell about it.

What Are Goods?

Communities provide goods for the people who live there. Goods are things that can be owned, held and taken home. Some goods are durable, meaning that they last a long time. Other goods are nondurable, meaning that they are used up quickly. Think about the goods on this list. Write a "D" next to the ones that you think are durable. Write an "N" next to the ones that you think are nondurable.

- beds _____
- crayons _____
- jeans _____
- jackets _____
- apples _____
- juice _____
- cars _____
- houses _____
- drawing paper _____
- tissues _____
- computers _____
- television sets _____
- books _____
- soap _____
- cookies _____

Look around your house. Make a list of your own.
Durable Goods

Nondurable Goods

Service Jobs

There are many jobs that perform the same service for the people who live in a community. List the people who perform each service. Try to think of more than two for each one.

- 1. People who help us stay healthy.
- 2. People who help us learn.
- 3. People who help us get our food.
- 4. People who help us stay safe.
- 5. People who help us transport our things.

Try to think of another category of service jobs. List it below.